TINA SANDERS
FRANKLIN COUNTY CLERK
WINCHESTER, TN 37398

All,

On August 23, 2024, I closed on the sale of my home and relocated within Franklin County; however, my new residence is no longer in the 7th District. According to the rules promulgated by the State of Tennessee, I am no longer eligible to serve this great county as a commissioner. Therefore, I am resigning, effective immediately as County Commissioner for Franklin County's 7th District, Seat B.

It has been a pleasure working with you to make our county the best county in the country. I love Franklin County, and it saddens me that I am not able to fulfill my full term. I do, however, walk away from this seat with many new friends and colleagues. I will be forever thankful for the opportunity to know and work with each of you.

With highest personal regards,

Grant D. Benere

FRANKLIN COUNTY GOVERNMENT

Service Animals Policy

Purpose

Franklin County Government recognizes that a person with a disability has the right to be accompanied by a service animal trained to assist the person with his or her specific disability in all Franklin County buildings, Franklin County property and on all grounds open to public. Generally, service animals are defined as any dog (or in limited cases, miniature horses) trained or in training to work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability. Therapy dogs, emotional support dogs, and companion dogs are not considered service animals.

Americans with Disabilities Act Compliance

Franklin County complies with all federal and state law regarding persons with disabilities, including the American with Disabilities Act and any amendments or implementing regulations to the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Risk Management.

Service Animals

Service Animals must be harnessed, leashed, or tethered unless such devices interfere with the service animal performing work for the disabled person or the individual's disability prevents them from these devices. If one of the devices are not, used the disabled individual must maintain control of the service animal through voice signal, or other effective controls. Service Animals must be vaccinated for Rabies as required by the State of Tennessee.

Staff Involvement

Only when it is not obvious what services an animal provides can staff make limited inquiries to a person. Specifically, staff can ask the following two questions:

- Is the dog a service animal required because of a disability?
- What work or task has the dog been trained to perform?

Staff should not ask the person what type of disability they have, ask to see medical documentation, ask for documentation that that the animal is trained or if they have a special identification card, or ask that the dog demonstrate its ability to perform the work or task.

Request to Leave

In a few limited circumstance staff can ask the handler and the animal to leave the premises:

- If the dog is being aggressive toward other people or animals
- The dog barks, growls, or whines unless trained to do so as a warning to its handler
- The dog is not housebroken
- The dog is out of control and person cannot get the dog under control
- The dog is soliciting food or other items from the general public
- In the case of miniature horse (generally between 24-36 inches tall at the shoulders and weighing between 70-100 pounds), whether the miniature horse is housebroken, under the owner's control and the facility can accommodate the miniature horse's type, size and weight, and the horse's presence will not compromise the legitimate safety requirements necessary for safe operation of the facility.
