

Is additional information required to vote absentee by-mail if I am a first-time voter who registered to vote by-mail?

You may still need to provide identification when you send back your ballot. Your county will send instructions with your ballot on what to include. Under the U.S. District Court Order of September 9, you do not have to appear in-person to vote in the first election after you register to vote by mail.